- c. Each soloist, ensemble and chamber ensemble event will provide the adjudicator an original score with each measure numbered or no rating will be given.
- d. The Original Score must show all parts being played and be aligned so the adjudicator can see all parts in each measure at the same time.
- e. DEFINITION OF ORIGINAL SCORE
 - i. Scores for all Solo and Ensemble events must contain aligned parts representing the voices of the ensemble in either concert or written pitch.
 - ii. If the selection is copyrighted, the only acceptable score is a purchased edition. The actual paper and ink sold by the publisher or music dealer. Photocopies of copyrighted music are illegal and unacceptable as adjudicator's music unless accompanied by written permission from the PUBLISHER.
 - iii. For music purchased on the Internet, proof of purchase must be presented to the site chair before the performance at the S/E Festival.
 - iv. For music that is free on the Internet, documentation of the source must be presented to the site chair before the performance at the S&E Festival.
 - v. If the selection is not copyrighted, a photocopy is acceptable provided it copies the entire page and is deemed legible by the performance room chairman.
 - vi. If the selection is out of print, photocopies are still illegal unless accompanied by written permission from the PUBLISHER.
 - vii. If the selection is not published or copyrighted (example, an original composition or arrangement), an acceptable score is one produced by computer or legible manuscript.
 - viii. If a full score is not published, a condensed score will be accepted.
 - ix. If no score is published, it is the responsibility of that event to make one. Handmade or computer generated scores must also have the original score (or parts) available.
 - x. "Instrument substitution is permitted without altering the score."
 - xi. Compliance with the provisions of the current copyright laws is the responsibility of each participating organization and participant." Four hand piano events may use secondo and primo scores.
- f. All events with an accompaniment must use a person playing the accompaniment part. No pre-recorded accompaniment will be allowed.

3. PERFORMANCE RULES

- a. Acceptable instruments for solo and ensemble performance are standard band and orchestra instruments, harp and piano. Recorders may only be used as members of ensembles that contain standard band and orchestra instruments. More than one piano per event will not be allowed at any Solo and Ensemble Festival.
- b. Each student is limited to four (4) events. If a student enters more than one solo, the solos must be played on different instruments. Students may perform in two (2) Chamber Ensembles in addition to the above.
- c. Instrumental solos and all ensembles need not be memorized.
- d. Accompaniment Rules
 - i. All events must be accompanied if an accompaniment is written, or no rating will be given. This rule does not apply to piano accompaniment parts that are clearly marked 'rehearsal' or 'optional.' (Piano solos with orchestral accompaniment must be performed without accompaniment.)
 - ii. Anyone may act as an accompanist.
 - iii. The director, following traditional practice, has the option to determine if a piano part is an accompaniment or is a member of the ensemble, if the title includes the piano as part of the ensemble, i.e. Mozart's Trio for Clarinet, Viola, & Piano.
- e. Percussion soloists on the Honors Track will be required to sight read as part of proficiency I, II, III or IV. All percussion instruments are to be supplied by the students.
- f. Sight-reading will be waived for all blind or visually impaired entrants as determined by their director. Full credit will be granted.
- g. Ten minutes will be allowed for solo and ensemble events.
- h. High school instrumental solos shall be a minimum of two minutes (2) in length, or no rating will be given. Repeats, D.C.'s or D.S.'s may not be added to the music to meet minimum time requirements. The adjudicator is allowed the remaining time minus two minutes to write his/her critique, to give verbal comments.
- i. Middle school instrumental solos shall be a minimum of one and a half minutes (1½) in length, or no rating will be given. Repeats, D.C.'s or D.S.'s may not be added to the music to meet minimum time requirements. The adjudicator is allowed the remaining time minus two minutes to write his/her critique, to give verbal comments.

- m. Directors, Parents and Students are not to take adjudicators to task for any reason.

4. RATING

- a. One of the five divisional ratings for prepared solos and ensembles will be used. These ratings are defined as follows for all solo and ensemble festivals:
 - i. Division I will represent a Superior level of performance and musicianship for the event.
 - ii. Division II will represent an Excellent performance, but not worthy of the highest rating because of minor defects in the performance or ineffective interpretation. Shows much accomplishment and promise.
 - iii. Division III will represent a Good performance, but not outstanding. Shows accomplishment and promise but is lacking in some essential qualities.
 - iv. Division IV will represent a Developing performance, which is lacking in many essential qualities.
 - v. Division V will represent an Unsatisfactory (inadequate) performance.
- b. PROFICIENCY RATINGS, these ratings are defined as follows for all solo and ensemble festivals:
 - i. Division I Proficiency Score of 100-85
 - ii. Division II Proficiency Score of 70-84
- c. There will be a Headquarters for directors and adjudicators only at each site. The rating sheets will be available to directors or their authorized representative (in writing). They may be picked up as soon as the organization's last event has been played and the rating has been tabulated and posted. All sheets from each organization will be released at one time. String, wind or percussion sheets will not be released separately.
